DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election with traverse of group 6 in Paper No. 11 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that the issues of patentability and interference of the claims in group 6 are related to claims in groups 3, 5, and 10, excluding claims 23 and 28-30 of group 3. This is not found persuasive because the claims in the respective groupings do not all relate to the same issues of patentability. Group 10 is related to methods for pre-processing a digital signal in such a way that will allow authorized descendant copies of the digital signal. This feature of group 10 is not needed in group 6. Group 5 is related to a method for pre-processing a watermark message using a fixed length key and a predetermined number of bits. There is no variation in the key bits in the pre-processing of the watermark message. Group 3 is related to methods for analyzing an area of an image to identify the differences in the digital signal through the use of a digital filter. The claims are focused on defining the sample intervals of the signal and not on the encoding process. Examiner contends each of the groupings have separate utility and therefore would be subject to separate counts and separate proofs in an interference proceeding.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Priority

If applicant desires priority under 35 U.S.C. 120 based upon a previously filed application, specific reference to the earlier filed application must be made in the instant application. For benefit claims under 35 U.S.C. 120, 121 or 365(c), the reference must include the relationship (i.e., continuation, divisional, or continuation-in-part) of the applications. This should appear as the first sentence of the specification following the title, preferably as a separate paragraph unless it appears in an application data sheet. The status of nonprovisional parent application(s) (whether patented or abandoned) should also be included. If a parent application has become a patent, the expression "now Patent No. _____" should follow the filing date of the parent application. If a parent application has become abandoned, the expression "now abandoned" should follow the filing date of the parent application.

If the application is a utility or plant application filed under 35 U.S.C. 111(a) on or after November 29, 2000, the specific reference must be submitted during the pendency of the application and within the later of four months from the actual filing date of the application or sixteen months from the filing date of the prior application. If the application is a utility or plant application which entered the national stage from an international application filed on or after November 29, 2000, after compliance with 35 U.S.C. 371, the specific reference must be submitted during the pendency of the application and within the later of four months from the date on which the national stage commenced under 35 U.S.C. 371(b) or (f) or sixteen months from the filing date of the prior application. See 37 CFR 1.78(a)(2)(ii) and (a)(5)(ii). This time period is not extendable and a failure to submit the reference required by 35 U.S.C. 119(e) and/or 120, where applicable, within this time period is considered a waiver of any benefit of such prior application(s) under 35 U.S.C. 119(e), 120, 121 and 365(c). A priority claim filed after the required time period may be accepted if it is accompanied by a grantable petition to accept an unintentionally delayed claim for priority under 35 U.S.C. 119(e), 120, 121 and 365(c). The petition must be accompanied by (1) the reference required by 35 U.S.C. 120 or 119(e) and 37 CFR 1.78(a)(2) or (a)(5) to the prior application (unless previously submitted), (2) a surcharge under 37 CFR 1.17(t), and (3) a statement that the entire delay between the date the claim was due under 37 CFR 1.78(a)(2) or (a)(5) and the date the claim was filed was unintentional. The Director may require additional information where there is a question whether the delay was unintentional. The petition should be addressed to: Mail Stop Petition, Commissioner for Patents, P.O. Box 1450, Alexandria, Virginia 22313-1450.

Art Unit: 2134

The chain of priority listed at the beginning of the specification and the chain of priority listed in the request for priority does not clearly establish the effective priority date. More specifically, under the section "Related Application Data", page 1, lines 7-12, it is not clear how the applications 08/534,005, 08/508,083, 08/436,098, 08/327,426, 08/215,283 and 08/154,866 that preceded application 08/637,531 are a part of the chain of priority. In other words, no reference to the relationships (i.e., continuation, divisional, or continuation-in-part) between the above applications and application 08/637,531 could be found. Therefore, for purposes of examination, the effective priority date is April 25, 1996.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 11-14, 16, 20-22 and 63-68 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. For claims 11 and 12, no discussion on how to generate varying key bits and encoding the watermark using the generated varying key bits could be found. For claims 13 and 14, no discussion on how to encode a watermark using a map derived from mapping key and processing state information could be found. For claims 20-22, no discussion on how to encode a watermark signal using pseudo-random spread spectrum techniques could be found.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Art Unit: 2134

Claims 63-68 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by U.S. 5,379,345 granted to Greenberg.

Regarding claims 63-68, Greenberg discloses an apparatus encoding a watermark (embedded data signal) in a digital signal (see column 3, lines 13-15) where identification and timing signals are added to the audio signal using a spread spectrum technique (see column 3, line 51 to column 5, line 7). The timing signals introduce a pseudo-random effect on the embedded data signal (see column 3, lines 57-63).
